Tiger Coaching Staff

Edwardsville High School Baseball Coach Tim Funkhouser will serve as the camp director. Coach Funkhouser enters his 11th season at the helm of the Tigers and has led them to a 311-75 record. The Tigers have reached the IHSA Elite 8 five times (2002- 2nd) and have won five SWC titles during his tenure. The Tigers were ranked as high as #4 in the nation in 2004. The camp staff will also include members of the Tiger coaching staff, current/former players and current college players.

The coaching staff will place an emphasis on fundamental skill development by using several of the same drills which have continued to elevate the Tigers as a premier program in the Metro St. Louis Area, State of Illinois and even nationally. Since 1999, thirty-eight players have moved on to play at the collegiate level. Four Tigers are currently active in professionally.

Facilities

All Tiger Baseball Camps are held at the EHS Sports Complex. The complex includes two baseball fields. Tiger Baseball Stadium features a newly renovated playing surface, multiple batting stations, concession stand, restrooms and locker room. The JV Field has a newly installed artificial turf surface and is the first in the Metro St. Louis Area for baseball. The facilities are one of the best in the region.

What to Bring?

Glove, hat, spikes, bat. Please label each item.

Multiple Child Discount

Families with more than one participant may deduct $20 for each additional child per camp.

Financial Aid

Tiger Baseball Camps offer extensive financial assistance; it is our goal to include every child who wants to learn more about the game of baseball. Please email Coach Funkhouser for details (tfunkhouser@ecusd7.org).
